

Mission: Fight Malaria

GSK Schools Challenge 2016

Terms and Conditions

1. The competition is open only to school students in the UK in years 7–9 (England and Wales), P7–S2 (Scotland) and years 8–10 (Northern Ireland).
2. The closing date for receipt of entries is 11.59pm on 21st October 2016. The Promoters reserve the right to amend the competition end date at any time.
3. Students can enter in teams of between 2–4 individuals. Each student can only enter once.
4. Teachers must be registered on www.gskscienceeducation.com to enter teams into the Challenge.
5. Instructions for entry will be available to download from the GSK Science Education website, www.gskscienceeducation.com.
6. All entries must be submitted by a UK secondary school teacher via the online form on the website, www.gskscienceeducation.com. Only entries using the template will be accepted. The template is available to download from: www.gskscienceeducation.com/engb/challenge/mission-fight-malaria-challenge-2016/challenge-2016-resources/
7. All entries must be original. Any entries which are found to be non-original or otherwise copied will be disqualified.
8. Entries may be completed at school or in a students' own time.
9. Entries cannot be returned. Any team/entrant should keep a copy (electronic or otherwise) before sending.
10. The Promoters cannot accept any responsibility for any damage, loss, injury or disappointment suffered by any entrant entering the competition (or any third party connected with them) or as a result of accepting any prize. The Promoters are not responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of any telephone network or lines, computer on-line systems, servers, or providers, computer equipment or software, failure of any email or entry to be received on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the internet, telephone lines or at any website, or any combination of these, including any injury or damage to entrant's or any other person's computer or mobile telephone related to or resulting from participation or downloading any materials in the competition. Nothing shall exclude the Promoters' liability for death or personal injury as a result of its negligence. Whilst no responsibility will be accepted for any lost/corrupted entries, where possible and/or appropriate, any issues will be flagged by the competition organisers in time for re-entry. This cannot be guaranteed, however.
11. All registrants should receive an automated email to their registered email address to confirm their entry.
12. Successful entrants will be notified via email to the teacher's registered email address on 31st October 2016.
13. Unsuccessful entrants will be notified via email to the teacher's registered email address by November 9th 2016.
14. All entries will be reviewed by an expert education panel.
15. Finalists will be invited to present their findings at the Science Museum on 29th November 2016. Finalists must be available, for this date, together with accompanying teacher(s).
16. The Promoters will not be liable for any change of date or venue or cancellation of the event.
17. The winner will be invited to visit a GSK research and development facility. Date and location will be agreed with the winners following the final.
18. Terms and Conditions, competition dates and entry instructions are available to download on the website www.gskscienceeducation.com/engb/challenge/mission-fight-malaria-challenge-2016/challenge-2016-resources/
19. There is no appeal system for those who are unsuccessful in the competition and no correspondence will be entered into.
20. Successful entries will be selected according to judging criteria from all eligible entries received before the publicised closing dates for each stage.
21. The Promoters will not be responsible for any inability of a prize winner to take up the specified prize.
22. The Promoters reserve the right to provide substitute prize(s) of similar value should the specified prize(s) become unavailable for reasons beyond its control. Cash or credit alternatives will not be offered. None of the prizes are transferable.
23. The GSK Global Communications and Science mentors will be made up of experts from within GSK. They will provide advice to teams via communication with teachers and school visits.
25. Travel costs will not be covered. GSK may agree to cover some of the travel expenses for schools who are required to travel a long distance; however these expenses will be awarded at GSK's discretion.
26. The winner(s) may be required to participate in publicity connected with the competition and it is a condition of entry that the winner(s) agree to the name of their school being made publicly available if they are shortlisted.

Mission: Fight Malaria

GSK Schools Challenge 2016

Terms and Conditions continued

27. The Promoters will not sell or rent personally identifiable information to third parties. EdComs Ltd, as a service provider for the competition will have access to your information to enable them to provide management for the competition and the judging process. Please rest assured that all companies providing support services are required by the Promoters to meet the same standards of data protection as the Promoters and are prohibited from using the information for their own purposes. In particular, the Promoters do not allow its service providers to use your personally identifiable information for their own marketing activities.

28. Entry will be deemed to signify acceptance of these terms and conditions.

29. The Promoters reserve the right to amend these rules at any time.

30. In the event that finalists or winners cannot be contacted (or fails to respond to any message left) or fails to meet any of the eligibility requirements or is otherwise unable to comply with the competition terms and conditions, this may result in forfeiture of the prize and the Promoters reserve the right to disqualify that entrant (without further liability to that entrant) and offer the prize to the next eligible entrant and thereafter until a winner is found.

31. Please note that we will only use the details you provide for purposes relating to the programme. They will not be passed to any third parties or used for any other purpose. From time to time we would like to use the details you have provided to contact you about developments to the programme or to ask for your feedback. If you would prefer not to be contacted please email scienceeducation@gsk.com.

32. Any entrant and/or winners must comply with any directions given to him or her by the Promoters, and with all relevant laws, rules and regulations, restrictions or itinerary. Failure to comply with instructions, itineraries, rules, restrictions, requirements, laws and guidelines may result in an invalid entry and/or forfeiture of the prize.

33. This competition is governed by English Law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

The Promoters of this competition are:

GlaxoSmithKline (GSK)
GSK House
980 Great West Road
Brentford
Middlesex
TW8 9GS